QIGONG: (Chee Kung) is the cornerstone of an ancient holistic healing system that teaches fun, simple, and easy to learn practices anyone can learn and apply anytime to foster wellness — body, mind, spirit. One focuses on natural breathing, body alignment, intention, slow and gentle movement - allowing one's natural state of wellness to flourish. Practices can be adapted to all levels of mobility.

TAI CHI: Tai Chi is a systematic Qigong practice engaging slow, precise, smooth body movements, natural breath, moving meditation to achieve a state of relaxation of body and mind.

GENTLE YOGA: Yoga is a healing system of theory and practice. It’s a combination of breathing exercises, physical postures and meditation; which has been practiced for more than 5,000 years.

LAUGH, STRETCH AND DE-STRESS: A modified form of laughter yoga class, that is open to anyone, can be done anywhere and you can laugh for no reason! You do not need jokes, comedy or even to be in the mood to laugh. Experience a new sensation in yoga breathing, stretching and mental relaxation. Depression will have a hard time hanging around after this fun class. Open to all patients, family & staff.

MEDITATION: A 4-session continuous class that addresses myths and misunderstandings about meditation, providing a relaxed and comfortable introduction to this important practice. Fee for Meditation class is $35.00 for 4 classes and only available by appointment.

Note: All classes are held at Banner—University Medical Center North. Payments for Touch Therapy and Classes are due at the time of your appointment. Please call the volunteer desk to make appointments or ask questions, (520) 694-1812.
